 10. No addition, alternation or amendment shall be made to or in these Articles for the time being in force, unless such addition, alternation or amendment has previously been submitted to and approved by the Registrar of Companies in writing or is made under a direction given under section 104(2)(b) or 105 of the Ordinance.

11. The Association shall not form a subsidiary or hold a controlling interest in another body corporate, unless the formation of such a subsidiary or the holding of such a controlling interest has previously been approved by the Registrar of Companies in writing.

MEMBERSHIP

12. For the purposes of registration, the number of members of the Association is declared not to exceed 1,000 but the Executive Committee may from time to time register an increase of members.
13. There shall be five types of members, namely, Ordinary Members, Life Members, Honorary Members, Institutional Members and Associate Members.
14. (a) The classes of members and the qualifications, restrictions and conditions applicable to each class shall be as follows :-

- (i) Ordinary Members

Any person aged 21 or above whose aim is to assist, promote or take part in the sports and recreational activities for persons with intellectual disability may upon the payment of a membership fee and then an annual subscription fee, the amounts of which are to be determined by the Executive Committee from time to time and such amounts should be endorsed in the Annual General Meeting, apply to become an Ordinary Member of the Association. An Ordinary Member is entitled to vote at the Annual General Meeting and the Extraordinary General Meeting and is also entitled to be nominated for election as a Committee Member.

- (ii) Life Members

Any ordinary member who pays a membership fee of $500.00 or at least ten times that of the annual subscription fee of an Ordinary Member, whichever is the higher, may become a Life Member of the Association. A Life Member will enjoy all the rights the same as those of an Ordinary Member.

- (iii) Honorary Members

Appropriate persons who may or may not be an Ordinary Member can be nominated without the payment of any fees as Honorary Members by the Executive Committee.

(iv) Institutional Members

Any schools, centres, workshops, or organization for persons with intellectual disability may apply to become Institutional Members of the Association. An Institution Member may nominate a number of its members to attend functions of the Association. The number of such nominated participants will be determined from time to time by the Executive Committee. The subscription fee for institution membership may be different from individual membership and is to be determined in general meeting by members.

(v) Associate Members

Any person whose aim is to assist, promote or take part in the sports and recreational activities for persons with intellectual disability may by paying a membership fee apply for admission as an Associate Member. The membership fee for an Associate Member will be determined in a general meeting by members from time to time or as circumstances requires.

- (b) Institutional Members, Associate Members and Honorary Members shall have the same obligations and rights as Ordinary Members except the right to vote and be voted into office.
- (c) Membership fee or annual subscription fee paid to the Association shall not be refunded under any circumstances.
- (d) Subject to the endorsement of the Association in a general meeting, the Executive Committee may, when they think fit, create any class or classes of members and determine the rights, privileges and benefits of any new class of members.

ADMISSION OF MEMBERS

- 15. Every application for membership shall be made by that applicant for membership in such form as the Executive Committee shall from time to time prescribe or approve.
- 16. All applications for membership shall be considered by the Executive Committee at its meeting and if approved by a majority of the Committee Members present, the applicant shall be selected. The applicant shall be notified of this in writing.

17. The Executive Committee shall have absolute discretion in accepting or refusing anyone for membership and its decision shall be final. In the event of refusal, the Executive Committee shall not be required to give any reasons. The applicant shall be notified of this in writing.

DISQUALIFICATION OF MEMBERS

18. If any member shall be convicted of any criminal offence or shall refuse to comply with the provisions of the Articles or any rules or regulations of the Association or has committed any conduct likely to be injurious to the Association or its reputation, such member shall be liable to expulsion by a resolution of a two-third majority of the Committee Members at the Executive Committee meeting provided that at least 7 days before the meeting at which such resolution is passed the member shall have had notice thereof, and of the intended resolution for his expulsion, and that the member shall before the passing of such resolution have had an opportunity of giving in writing any explanation or defence he may think fit. And, such member shall have the right to appeal against the decision of the Executive Committee for his expulsion to the members of the Association in a general meeting. The decision of the members present in the general meeting shall be a simple majority decision and the member shall before the passing of such resolution have had an opportunity of giving in writing any explanation or defence he may think fit. The decision of the members in the general meeting shall be final.
19. Any member who shall be for any reason expelled under the Articles or cease to be a member shall forfeit all rights in and claims upon the Association and shall have no claim whatsoever on the property of the Association.

GENERAL MEETINGS

20. (a) Subject to sections 611, 612 and 613 of the Ordinance, the Association, must, in respect of each financial year of the Association, hold a general meeting as its annual general meeting in accordance with section 610 of the Ordinance, and not more than 15 months shall elapse between the date of one annual general meeting and that of the next. Provided that so long as the Association holds its first Annual General Meeting within 18 months of its incorporation, it need not hold it in the year of its incorporation or in the following year.
- (b) The Annual General Meeting shall be held at such time and place as the Executive Committee shall appoint. Members may participate in any Annual General Meeting by means of conference telephone, electronic or other

- (v) If a special resolution is intended to be moved at the meeting, specify the intention and include the text of the special resolution; and
- (vi) contain a statement specifying a member’s right to appoint a proxy under section 596(1) of the Ordinance in a manner hereinafter mentioned or in such other manner, if any, as may be prescribed by the Association in a general meeting, to such persons as are, under the Articles entitled to receive such notices from the Association.

- (e) Article 22(d)(iv) does not apply in relation to a resolution of which:
 - (i) notice has been included in the notice of the meeting under section 567(3) or 568(2) of the Ordinance; or
 - (ii) notice has been given under section 615 of the Ordinance.
- (f) Despite the fact that a general meeting is called by shorter notice than that specified in the Articles, be deemed to have been duly called if it is so agreed:
 - (i) in the case of an annual general meeting, by all the members entitled to attend and vote thereat; and
 - (ii) in the case of any other meeting, by a majority in number of the members having a right to attend and vote at the meeting, being a majority together representing not less than 95% of the total voting rights of all the members entitled to attend and vote at that meeting.
- (g) Any accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to, or the non-receipt of notice of a meeting by, any person entitled to receive notice shall not invalidate the proceedings at that meeting.

- 23. (a) Notice of a general meeting must be given to:
 - (i) every member; and

- (ii) every Committee Member,

- (b) If notice of a general meeting or any other document relating to the meeting is required to be given to a member, the Association must give a copy of it to its auditor (if more than one auditor, to everyone of them) at the same time as the notice of the other document is given to the member.

- (c) No person other than those referred to in Articles 23(a) and 23(b) above shall be entitled to receive notices of general meetings.

PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

- 24. All business shall be deemed special that is transacted at an Extraordinary General Meeting, and also all that is transacted at an Annual General Meeting, with the exception of the consideration of the accounts, balance sheets, and the reports of the Executive Committee and auditors, the election of Committee Members in the place of those retiring and the appointment of, and the fixing of the remuneration of the auditors.

- 25. No business shall be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum of members is present at the time when the meeting proceeds to business and continues to be present until the conclusion of the meeting; save as herein otherwise provided, the quorum shall be fifteen members present in person or by proxy.

- 26. (a) If within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting, if convened upon the requisition of members, shall be dissolved; in any other case it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week, at the same time and place, or to such other day and at such other time and place as the Executive Committee may determine, and if at the adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting, the members present in person or by proxy shall be a quorum.

- (b) The chairperson of the general meeting may adjourn a general meeting at which a quorum is present if:
 - (i) the meeting consents to an adjournment; or

 - (ii) it appears to the chairperson of the general meeting that an adjournment is necessary to protect the safety of any person attending the meeting or ensure that the business of the meeting is conducted in an orderly manner.

- (c) The chairperson of the general meeting must adjourn a general meeting if directed to do so by the meeting.
 - (d) When adjourning a general meeting, the chairperson of the general meeting must specify the date, time and place to which it is adjourned.
 - (e) Only the business left unfinished at the general meeting may be transacted at the adjourned meeting.
 - (f) When a general meeting is adjourned for 30 days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given as in the case of an original general meeting.
 - (g) If a general meeting is adjourned for less than 30 days, it is not necessary to give any notice of the adjourned meeting.
27. The Chairperson of the Executive Committee shall preside as chairperson at every general meeting of the Association or if he shall not be present within 15 minutes after the time appointed for the holding of the meeting or is unwilling to act or is absent from Hong Kong or has given notice to the Association of his intention not to attend the meeting, the Committee Members present shall elect one of their number to be chairperson of the meeting.
28. If at any meeting no Committee Member is willing to act as chairperson of the meeting or if no Committee Member is present within 15 minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, the members present shall elect one of their numbers to be the chairperson of the meeting.
29. (a) At any general meeting, a resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall be decided by a show of hands, unless a poll is (before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands) demanded:
- (i) by the chairperson of the general meeting;
 - (ii) by a member or members present in person or by proxy and representing at least 5% of the total voting rights of all the members having the right to vote at the meeting; or
 - (iii) by at least 2 members present in person or by proxy
- (b) The instrument appointing a proxy is regarded as conferring authority to demand or join in demanding a poll on a resolution.

(d) The demand for a poll may be withdrawn.

30. Except as provided in Article 35 if a poll is duly demanded it shall be taken in such manner as the chairperson of the meeting directs, and the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.

31. In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the chairperson of the meeting at which the show of hands takes place or at which the poll is demanded, shall be entitled to a second or casting vote.

32. A poll demanded on the election of a chairperson of the meeting, or on a question of adjournment, shall be taken forthwith. A poll demanded on any other question shall be taken at such time as the chairperson of the meeting directs, and any business other than that upon which a poll has been deemed may be proceeded with pending the taking of the poll.

33. On a vote on a resolution on a show of hands at a general meeting, a declaration by the chairperson of the meeting that the resolution-

(a) has or has not been passed; or

(b) has passed by a particular majority,

is conclusive evidence of that fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against the resolution.

34. An entry in respect of the declaration in the minutes of the meeting is also conclusive evidence of that fact without the proof.

35. (a) Any objection to the qualification of any person voting at a general meeting may only be raised at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is tendered, and a vote not disallowed at the meeting is valid.

(b) Any objection must be referred to the chairperson of the meeting whose decision is final.

VOTES OF MEMBERS

36. Only Ordinary Member and Life Member shall have voting rights and shall be entitled to be nominated for election as a Committee Member.

37. On a vote on a resolution, whether on a show of hands at a general meeting or on a poll taken at a general meeting-
- (a) every Ordinary Member and Life Member present in person has 1 vote; and
 - (b) every proxy present who has been duly appointed by an Ordinary Member or Life Member entitled to vote on the resolution has 1 vote.
38. A member of unsound mind, or in respect of whom an order has been made by any court having jurisdiction in lunacy, may vote, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, by his committee, receiver, curator bonis or other person in the nature of a committee, receiver or curator bonis appointed by that Court.
39. No member shall be entitled to vote at any general meeting unless all moneys payable by him to the Association in his capacity as member, and which have been outstanding for more than 1 month after they fall due for payment, have been paid at least one month before the date of that general meeting.

PROXY

40. A member of the Association is entitled to appoint another person who shall also be an Ordinary Member or a Life Member of the Association as a proxy to exercise all or any of the Ordinary Member's or Life Member's rights to attend and to speak and vote at a general meeting.
41. (a) A proxy may only validly be appointed by a notice in writing (proxy notice) that-
- (i) states the name and address of the member appointing the proxy;
 - (ii) identifies the person appointed to be that member's proxy and the general meeting in relation to which that person is appointed;
 - (iii) is authenticated, or is signed on behalf of the member appointing the proxy; and
 - (iv) is delivered to the Association in accordance with these Articles and any instructions contained in the notice of the general meeting in relation to which the proxy is appointed.
- (b) The Association may require proxy notices to be delivered in a particular form, and may specify different forms for different purposes.

- (c) If the Association requires or allows a proxy notice to be delivered in electronic form, it may require the delivery to be protected by a security arrangement it specifies.
 - (d) A proxy notice may specify how the proxy appointed under it is to vote (or that the proxy is to abstain from voting) on one or more resolutions dealing with any business to be transacted at a general meeting.
 - (e) Unless a proxy notice indicates otherwise, it must be regarded as-
 - (i) allowing the person appointed under it as a proxy discretion as to how to vote on any ancillary or procedural resolutions put to the general meeting; and
 - (ii) appointing that person as a proxy in relation to any adjournment of the general meeting to which it relates as well as the meeting itself.
42. (a) A proxy notice does not take effect unless it is received by the Association-
- (i) for a general meeting or adjourned general meeting, at least 48 hours before the time appointed for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting; and
 - (ii) for a poll taken more than 48 hours after it was demanded, at least 24 hours before the time appointed for taking the poll.
- (b) An appointment under a proxy notice may be revoked by delivering to the Association a notice in writing given by or on behalf of the person by whom or on whose behalf the proxy notice was given.
- (c) A notice revoking the appointment only takes effect if it is received by the Association-
- (i) for a general meeting or adjourned general meeting, at least 48 hours before the time appointed for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting; and
 - (ii) for a poll taken more than 48 hours after it was demanded, at least 24 hours before the time appointed for taking the poll.
43. (a) A proxy's authority in relation to a resolution is to be regarded as revoked if the member who has appointed the proxy-

- (i) attends in person the general meeting at which the resolution is to be decided; and
 - (ii) exercises, in relation to the resolution, the voting right that the member is entitled to exercise.
- (b) A member who is entitled to attend, speak or vote (either on a show of hands or on a poll) at a general meeting remains so entitled in respect of the meeting or any adjournment of it, even though a valid proxy notice has been delivered to the Association by or on behalf of the member.
44. (a) A vote given in accordance with the terms of a proxy notice is valid despite-
- (i) the previous death or mental incapacity of the member appointing the proxy; or
 - (ii) the revocation of the appointment of the proxy or of the authority under which the appointment of the proxy is executed.
- (b) Article 44(a) does not apply if notice in writing of the death, mental incapacity or revocation is received by the Association-
- (i) for a general meeting or adjourned general meeting, at least 48 hours before the time appointed for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting; and
 - (ii) for a poll taken more than 48 hours after it was demanded, at least 24 hours before the time appointed for taking the poll.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

45. Until otherwise determined by the Association in a general meeting, the total number of Committee Members from time to time shall not be more than 15 and not less than 7. The posts of the Committee Members are as follows:
- (a) Chairperson;
 - (b) Vice-chairperson(s);
 - (c) Honorary Secretary; and

(d) Honorary Treasurer.

46. Until otherwise determined by the general meeting, the management of affairs of the Association shall be vested in the Executive Committee and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, the Executive Committee shall carry out the following functions:

(a) to implement resolution passed by the general meetings;
